

The Bernard Vavrek Scholarship Committee Rules of Conduct

1. The committee chairperson shall serve for only one year as chairperson and the following year as committee member. Each committee member shall serve no more than one year.
2. All nominations shall remain private. The committee will not divulge the names or any other information about the nominees. This is to avoid any hurt feelings of those nominated but not selected. Nomination forms of those not selected will be destroyed.
3. The recipient will receive the award at the Annual ABOS Conference. They will be notified in advance. This is to increase the likelihood of attendance at the conference or, if they are unable to attend, submission of an acceptance letter to be read at the awards ceremony.
